

WAIT Performance – September 2008 Řitka, September 20, 2008

WAIT performance took place as a part of cultural afternoon „Ritka union“ which was organized by local council in order to bring together and unite old and new village citizens. WAIT performance was initiated by parents of our WAIT members Mojmír and Eva Kacirek who themselves live in Ritka and it has been seen by cca 120 village citizens.

120-150 all different age village citizens gathered to see the WAIT performance

Global Peace Festival, Plzen, September 21, 2008

On September 21, WAIT team was invited to perform by Yambi Mwesigwo - world spiritual university Brahma Kumaris, who has organised International Day of Peace in OC Plaza Plzen many times before. The event was under the auspices of UN Information Center in Prague. Many other professional dance and sing groups showed their performance here. About 120 people could receive WAIT message of pure love and sexual abstinence – the best way of preparation for marriage fidelity in future - during two WAIT performances.

The youngest WAIT team members prepared new beat box performance which they made up themselves

Break dance

WAIT goes beyond all boundaries between races, cultures and nationalities. New WAIT members found their place in the team from the very beginning.
